City of Evanston's Youth & Young Adult Division

After-School Programs/Early Childhood | Career Services | Financial Support Services | Legal Support Services/Restorative Justice

The City of Evanston's Youth and Family Services Division was established to provide opportunities for Evanston's youth and young adults to become active and productive citizens of the community. Our comprehensive youth development program model gives young people multiple, closely aligned pathways to success. The division promotes long-term, sustained engagement among 14- to 26-year-olds and positive relationships with adults. We also seek to provide young people with a vast network of support to become confident, competent, resilient, and self-sustaining adults.
